Code of Conduct for School Governing Boards

Broadwindsor CE VC Primary School

This code sets out the expectations on, and commitment required from, school governors and trustees to allow the governing board to properly carry out its work within the school and the community. It can be amended to include specific reference to the ethos of the school and should be read in conjunction with relevant law and for academies their articles of association and terms of reference. 'School' includes academies, and it applies to all level of school governance.

We seek to create a happy, family atmosphere within a Christian environment where each adult and child feels secure and has a sense of purpose and responsibility. Christian values are part of every aspect of our school curriculum and daily life and are reflected throughout our ethos, aim and objectives. Children are valued, nurtured and encouraged to flourish.

Our Vision: Taking the extra step in learning, kindness and ambition for ourselves, others and our World.

Our vision is inspired by the story of the Tenth Man – can we be like the 'tenth man' and take the extra step for others?

Luke 17: 18-19 New Revised Standard Version (NRSV) – The Story of the Tenth Man

Jesus said, 'There were ten men who were healed, where are the other nine? Why is this foreigner the only who came back to give thanks to God?' And Jesus said to him, 'Get up and go; your faith has made you well.'

Through the Autumn Term of 2023, children, governors, teachers and parents all reflected on which Christian values would be important to us', as we move forward together as a Christian School Community, to focus on, strengthen and build upon. Together we chose:

The seven principles of public life

(Originally published by the Nolan Committee: The Committee on Standards in Public Life was established by the then Prime Minister in October 1994, under the Chairmanship of Lord Nolan, to consider standards of conduct in various areas of public life, and to make recommendations).

Selflessness - Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest.

Integrity - Holders of public office must avoid placing themselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence them in their work. They should not act or take decisions in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends. They must declare and resolve any interests and relationships.

Dorset
Council

Objectivity - Holders of public office must act and take decisions impartially, fairly and on merit, using the best evidence and without discrimination or bias.

Accountability - Holders of public office are accountable to the public for their decisions and actions and must submit themselves to the scrutiny necessary to ensure this.

Openness - Holders of public office should act and take decisions in an open and transparent manner. Information should not be withheld from the public unless there are clear and lawful reasons for so doing.

Honesty – Holders of public office should be truthful

Leadership – Holders of public office should exhibit these principles in their own behaviour. They should actively promote and robustly support the principles and be willing to challenge poor behaviour wherever it occurs.

Breach of this code of conduct

- If we believe this code has been breached, we will raise this issue with the chair and the chair will investigate; the governing board will only use suspension/removal as a last resort after seeking to resolve any difficulties or disputes in more constructive ways.
- Should it be the chair that we believe has breached this code, another governor, such as the vice chair will investigate.
